

“Around the Neighborhood”

The Children's Museum of Indianapolis is the largest children's museum in the world. As a five-story building housing 100,000 artifacts in 10 galleries that explore the physical and natural sciences, history, foreign culture and the arts. Take a ride on the turn-of-the-century carousel or get a great view of the stars at Space Quest Planetarium. Dinosphere, represents one of the largest displays of real juvenile and family dinosaur fossils in the United States.

The Indianapolis Zoo, is a must-see for both animal and plant lovers. Home to over 2,000 animals and Indiana's largest aquarium, this 64-acre zoo has lions, elephants and other wild animals roaming through natural settings. Kids will love petting the dogfish shark in a shallow pool and an opportunity to help zookeepers wash elephants.

When it comes to racing, Indianapolis takes the checkered flag every time. Commonly referred to as the "Racing Capital of the World," Indianapolis hosts the two largest single-day sporting events in the world: the Indianapolis 500 and the Allstate 400 at the Brickyard and the largest Formula One race in the world, the United States Grand Prix. All held at the famed oval of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, each race draws crowds from across the globe.

You will find Indy to be a fresh and diverse cultural city with an enriching array of arts, attractions, historical sites and special events. Visit the Indiana Repertory Theatre for the best in professional theatre. Take a listen to the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra while they move you with music at the Hilbert Circle Theatre. You will want to put these in your must do list.

Along with very affordable housing, Indianapolis delivers an outstanding and exciting experience with a wide variety of easy to get to attractions, coupled with friendly people in a warm environment! Be part of the action now and consider making Indianapolis your home. Indianapolis...a truly family oriented community where YOU can make a difference!

RABBI YISRAEL GETTINGER

AFFILIATED WITH THE
UNION OF ORTHODOX JEWISH
CONGREGATIONS OF AMERICA

Rabbi Yisrael
Gettinger

A rabbi is far more than a person who leads religious services and officiates at life cycle events. He is teacher, counselor, authority on religious questions and issues, community leader and very knowledgeable in all aspects of the Torah. Rabbi Yisrael Gettinger fills all of those roles and more.

Rabbi Gettinger grew up in New York City, and comes from a long line of rabbis. Following in their tradition, Rabbi Gettinger received his Smicha from Rav Hutner z"l, the late Rosh Yeshiva of Yeshivas Chaim Berlin. Rabbi Gettinger came to Indianapolis in 2008.

It is said that Rabbi Gettinger has a unique ability to explain to people what it really means to be an Orthodox Jew. His sermons and lectures are informative, entertaining and inspiring. Congregation B'nai Torah is very proud of our learned leader and Rabbi.

Finding A Shul That's Right For You

At B'nai Torah we pride ourselves on the genuine friendly atmosphere that prevails. The Synagogue is large enough to be able to support a variety of activities, yet small enough for each member to feel important. We strive to meet the needs of every individual.
